2. There is no tax relief/benefit for making the above cash refund.
3. If I had used my Special Account ("SA") savings arising from the CPF contribution cuts in 1999 and/or 2003, and/or the change in Medisave Account overflow policy in 2006 for my Property, the above cash refund will first be credited to my SA for the refund of the principal SA savings used and its accrued interest, followed by my Ordinary Account ("OA"). All SA savings, including the amount refunded to my SA cannot be used for my next property purchase under the CPF Housing Schemes.

Partial Refund of CPF Savings Withdrawn and Accrued Interest:

6. My standing instruction with the Board to use my CPF savings for the monthly housing loan instalment (if any) will continue unless I inform the Board to cease the standing instruction.
7. I will need to refund my balance CPF savings withdrawn and/or accrued interest to my CPF account upon the sale/transfer or otherwise disposal of my Property.

Full Refund of CPF Savings Withdrawn and Accrued Interest:

8. All CPF withdrawals including my monthly housing loan instalment (if any) for my Property will be stopped.
9. The amount that will be refunded to my CPF account is capped at the amount I have withdrawn for my Property and the accrued interest as at the time of crediting. Any excess amount paid will be returned to me without interest.
10. No further refund to my CPF account will be required upon the sale/transfer or otherwise disposal of my Property. The CPF charge on my Property will automatically lapse upon the full refund.
11. If I would like to use my CPF savings to service the outstanding housing loan after making the full cash refund for my:
 - HDB flat: I will need to re-apply to use my CPF savings.
 - Private property: I will need to re-apply to use my CPF savings and I will need to pay legal costs as a new CPF charge has to be lodged on my Property.
