

Viewing Your MediShield Life Premiums Online

Checking the MediShield Life premiums for yourself and your dependants is easy. Here is a guide to help you find your way around the CPF Healthcare Dashboard.

Before you start

- You may access the Healthcare Dashboard with a browser on your mobile device or a computer.
- Make sure you have your Singpass for logging in.
- Screenshots in this guide are for reference only. Depending on your coverage, your information may look different from those portrayed in this guide.
- Depending on your needs, you may find the following shortcuts useful:

Section	Description
Viewing Your Own Premiums	If you are the payer of your MediShield Life policy
Viewing Your Dependants' Premiums	If you have dependants, and <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- you are the payer for your dependants, or</li><li>- you are not the payer for your dependants who are minors under 21 years of age, and they are paying for themselves.</li></ul> If you are unsure whether you're paying for any dependants, you can check this section as well.

1. Accessing & Understanding the Healthcare Dashboard

Go to cpf.gov.sg/healthcare & log in with your Singpass

Alternatively,

1. Go to cpf.gov.sg
2. Click 'login'
3. Authenticate with your Singpass
4. Go to 'my cpf' > under My dashboards > Healthcare

Healthcare dashboard overview

On your Healthcare dashboard, you can view the following information:

Tab	What they are meant for
Health insurance	Coverage & premium details of MediShield Life, as well as any outstanding premium payable
Long-term care insurance	Coverage under CareShield Life/ElderShield
Utilisation of healthcare benefits	MediSave withdrawal limits for hospitalisation and outpatient treatments
Latest healthcare payments and claims	Past 15 months' claim records

2. Viewing your own premiums

In the Health insurance card > Coverage and premium details

Your annual premium payable for MediShield Life will be displayed here.

The screenshot displays a 'Healthcare dashboard' as of 21 Jan 2025. It features two summary cards: 'MediSave Account balance' at $2,718.07 and 'Government subsidies for healthcare' at $988.70. A navigation bar includes 'Health insurance', 'Long-term care insurance', 'Utilisation of healthcare benefits', and 'Latest health'. The 'Health insurance' section is active, showing 'Coverage and premium details' for MediShield Life. The current renewal date is 01 Jul 2024, and the net premium payable is $746.47. A message states: 'No action is required. The premiums have been paid.'

Category	Value
MediSave Account balance	$2,718.07
Government subsidies for healthcare	$988.70
Net premium payable for MediShield Life	$746.47

3. Viewing your dependants' premiums

If you have dependants, you will be able to see the 'View healthcare information for' box containing a dropdown list.

The screenshot displays a 'Healthcare dashboard' interface. At the top, it shows the title 'Healthcare dashboard' and the date 'as at 05 Feb 2025'. Below this, two key metrics are presented: 'MediSave Account balance' at $38,486.56 and 'Government subsidies and support for healthcare' at $99.32. A central section, highlighted with a yellow border, contains the text 'Viewing healthcare information for' above a white dropdown menu with a black bar and a downward arrow. Below this is a navigation bar with four tabs: 'Health insurance' (selected), 'Long-term care insurance', 'Utilisation of healthcare benefits', and 'Latest health news'. The main content area is titled 'Health insurance' and features a section for 'Coverage and premium details'. This section includes the text 'Covered under MediShield Life' and 'Current renewal date 01 Jun 2024'.

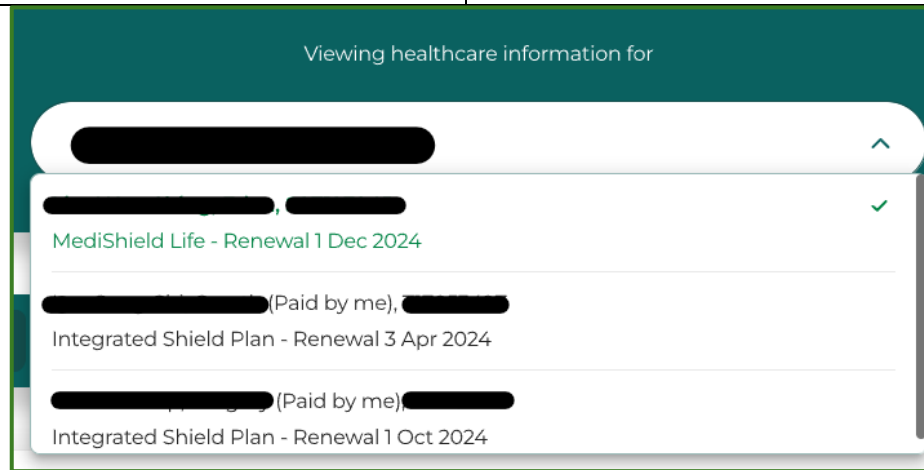

Select the dependant you wish to view details of from the drop-down list.

If you are the payer for your dependant, you will see '(Paid by me)' next to your dependant's name.

If you have children under 21 years, but you are not their payer, you will see '(Not paid by me)' next to the respective dependant's name.

If your dependant is covered under an Integrated Shield Plan and you are the payer, you will be able to see their coverage details.

If your spouse is the payer for the integrated plan, you will not be able to see your children's coverage details on your Healthcare dashboard.

Note:

The premium amount in your MediShield Life renewal email/SMS includes premiums for dependants renewing in the same month. To verify, sum up the individual premiums displayed on your Healthcare dashboard that you are the payer for, and compare with the total in the notification.

Viewing the premium payable

The annual MediShield Life premium payable for your dependant will be displayed under 'Coverage and premium details'.

The screenshot displays a user interface for viewing healthcare information. At the top, a dark teal header contains the text "Viewing healthcare information for" above a white search bar with a dropdown arrow. Below this, the main content area is titled "Health insurance". A yellow highlight is placed over the section header "Coverage and premium details". Underneath, two rows of information are shown: "Covered under MediShield Life" and "Current renewal date 01 Sep 2024". A third row displays "Net premium payable for MediShield Life" with the value "$1,082.56" circled in green and a dropdown arrow. At the bottom, a grey box contains a bullet point: "No action is required. The premiums have been paid."
