Concurrent employment	Is CPF payable?
If you are concurrently employed by more than one employer, all your employers must pay CPF contributions on the wages given to you. This is because the Ordinary Wage (OW) ceiling is applicable on a "per employment" basis. However, if your total OW from your employers exceed the prevailing OW ceiling, you may apply to limit your share of contributions. There will be no change to the employer's share of CPF contributions. All your employers will have to pay the employer's share of CPF contributions on the OW at the prevailing rate, subject to the OW ceiling. As contributions are payable monthly, the approval cannot be backdated and it will only take effect once CPF Board's approval has been granted. You can submit an online application (via Singpass) to limit your share of CPF contributions. We will inform you of the outcome of your application via My Mailbox.	YES
